

SUZOHAPP to Bring New Products, New Website to BEGE

DE MEERN, THE NETHERLANDS, November 11, 2019 – SUZOHAPP – a leading technology company with over 50,000 gaming, amusement, sports betting, lottery and bingo products for casino operators and gaming OEMs – will be exhibiting at the Balkan Entertainment and Gaming Expo (BEGE) in Sofia, Bulgaria from November 20-21 at booth #2.9. BEGE is the leading exhibition for the gaming and entertainment industry in the Eastern European region, gathering over 5,000 international visitors from over 50 countries.

At this year's BEGE, SUZOHAPP will be showcasing the most complete range of components on the market today, including monitors, locks, printers, scanners, bill and coin handling, cabinet parts, and more.

"We can provide virtually every component gaming OEMs and operators need which significantly simplifies their sourcing," said Sim Bielak, SUZOHAPP's President of Global Gaming & Amusement. "At the same time, we keep them at the forefront of the industry through our commitment to continuous product innovation."

New products and customer favorites to be displayed at this year's BEGE include the Newland line of scanners, new printer models from Nanoptix and Custom, the high-tech lock system E-PRL, as well as software tools which allow sports betting operators to migrate websites or Android betting apps onto sports betting kiosks. Also showcased will be an expanded VisionPro™ monitor line, now including 4K UHD models, narrow border touch, and Thru-Glass capability which allows touchscreens to work through 9mm of tempered glass. Rounding out SUZOHAPP's exhibition will be its vast range of coin and note handling components as well as cabinet parts, such as power supplies, speakers and pushbuttons, including the latest Dynamic Panel Systems (DPS).

SUZOHAPP will also introduce BEGE visitors to its new Components website. Information rich, easily searchable and well organized, this new site is designed to connect operators and OEMs to the resources they need quickly.

"We are excited about our new website launch and are confident our Gaming customers will appreciate its intuitive design and breadth of content," added Mike Sigona, SUZOHAPP's Business Development and Global Gaming Product Manager. "We believe this site will become a go-to resource for our customers, giving them on-demand access to product information that will even further simplify their sourcing process."
